THE ISTHMUS CANAL

MESSAGE BY PRESIDENT HAYES

No European Power or Powers Can Control the Great American Highway and the Reason Why—The Latest from Panama and Nicaragua

A Growl from the British Lion

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN]

WASHINGTON March 8 The senate to-day received a message from the president in response to a resolution calling for correspondence respecting a ship canal He says

I deem it proper to state briefly my opinion as to the policy of the United States with respect to the construction of an inter oceanic canal by any route across the American isthmus The policy of this country is that such a canal must be under American control The United States cannot consent to the surrender of this control to any European power or to any combination of European powers If existing treaties between the United States and other nations or if the rights of sovereignty of property of other nations stand in the way of this policy a contingency which is not apprehended suitable steps should be taken by just and liberal negotiations to promote and establish American policy on this subject consistently with the rights of nations to be affected by it The capital invested by corporations or citizens of other countries in such an enterprise must in a great degree look for protection to one or more of the great powers of the world No European power can intervene for such protection without adopting measures on this continent which the United States would deem wholly inadmissible If the protection of the United States is relied upon the United States must exercise such control as will enable this country to protect its national interests and maintain those whose private capital is embarked in the work An inter oceanic canal across the American isthmus will essentially change the geographical relations between the Atlantic and Pacific coast of the United States and between the United States and the rest of the world It will be a great oceanic thorough fare between our Atlantic and Pacific shores and virtually part of the coast line of the United States Our merely commercial interest is greater than that of all other countries while its relations to our power and prosperity as a nation and to our means of defence our unity peace and safety are matters of paramount consideration to the people of the United States No other great power would under similar circumstances fail to assert rightful control over a work so closely and vitally affecting its interest and welfare

Without urging further the ground of my opinion I repeat, in conclusion that it is the right and duty of the United States to assert and maintain such supervision and authority over any inter oceanic canal across the isthmus that connects North and South America as will protect our national interests. This I am quite sure will be found not only compatible with, but promotive of the widest and most permanent advantage to commerce and civilization

"But Beware how you Tread on his Tail "

NEW YORK March 9 —A special London cable has the following The Standard this morning, referring to U S claims for preponderating influence in the Panama canal, says that this pretension Great Britain is bound to watch, and if necessary to resist No more at Panama than at Suez can the preponderating influence of another power be allowed to lay hands on the trade of England

The Situation on the Isthmus

PANAMA, March 8 —The arrival in Nicaragua is announced of J Tomarde Franco who is the proclaimed bearer of an important proposition from General Grant and Admiral Ammen looking to obtaining a concession from the government of Nicaragua The Gaceta (official) states that O G Menocal is expected early to treat on canal matters, and says We know that it is now a fact that a responsible company of American capitalists and French bankers among which figure the name of Rothschild and which will be presided over by General Grant and Admiral Ammen, will be organized so soon as the concession which will be asked from this government is obtained, with which object and with proper power a civil engineer of the United States, O. G Menocal, will arrive by the first steamer. Nicaragua papers generally denounce De Lesseps's visit to the isthmus as part of a scheme of humbug in the interest of the French company, and await with anxiety the arrival of Menocal.

Much Ado about a Small Matter.

The Star and Herald says of the story that United States war vessels have been ordered to Panama to formally take possession of some territory on the coast of Chiriqui that the territory in question is supposed to be comprised in a conditional grant made to one Thompson by the Panama government some twenty-five years ago, but as the conditions of the grant were never carried out by Thompson or his associates the concession has long since fallen through.

Syllabus—While it is admitted to be the general rule that oral evidence is not admissible to explain or vary the words of a written instrument there are exceptions and qualifications of the rule when the force operation and construction of the written instrument are concerned

Falsa demonstratio non nocet has become a thoroughly established maxim of the law the practical meaning of which is that however many errors there may be in the description entree of the legatee or of the subject matter of the devise it will not avoid the bequest, provided enough remains to show, with reasonable certainty the intent of the devisor

Extraneous oral evidence is clearly admissible to show the state and extent of the testator's property at the time the will was executed in order that the court may be placed in the position of testator at the time and be able to read the will in the light of surrounding circumstances

Where the devise of S. bequeathes "to Margaret McGill a certain parcel of ground or lots in the city of Portland numbered block 187 lot No 2 and also to his sister Esther Brady that lot or parcel of ground in the city of Portland described as lot No. 1 in block 187 and it appears that the testator at the time said will was executed had no such lots as 1 and 2 in block 187 but did own lots 3 and 4 in said block, that part of the description may be treated as erroneous, and be rejected and the remaining description will be sufficient to identify the property with reasonable certainty

Where a married woman owns land in this state in her own right and she and her husband reside out of the state they may join in the execution of a power of attorney investing another with such power to convey any interest she may have in such real estate

Arguments of Counsel in the Chinese Test Case—Theories and Claims of Both Parties General Precautionary Movements

Manifesto by Men Representing Solid Interests

How the Matter is Viewed at Washington—Military Movements Etc , Etc

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN

SAN FRANCISCO March 8 —The Call this morning publishes the result of inquiries regarding the recent movements in military circles in this city from which it appears that all the arms of the 2d regiment of the national guard have been removed from the various company armories and deposited in the old city hall or central police station where a guard of a lieutenant and ten men of a company of the 2d regiment is kept over them Companies B and G of the 1st regiment have been concentrated at the armory of the latter company and the arms of Company G of the 2d regiment have been placed in their charge An officer's guard is now mounted nightly at the armory of the 3d regiment which is allowed to retain its arms The armory of the 1st regiment is closely guarded and no one allowed to enter The arms of the three cavalry companies have been removed from their armory to what locality it is unknown but probably to the old city hall Camp regulations have been established and grand rounds visit the various posts nightly The arms only of the 2d regiment have been removed from the armories and guards are detailed every night to watch over their company property The 3d regiment has been concentrated at the Olympic club building and those companies of the 1st not accommodated at the armory of Company C are at the regiment head quarters corner of Howard and New Montgomery streets Gen McDowell commanding the division of the Pacific, was telegraphed yesterday from Washington to bring all the available troops in his division to San Francisco and companies amounting in all to 500 men are already en route, with more to follow probably 1500 altogether

It is impossible to find out by whose orders these movements of the National Guard are made as the officers refuse to give any information, but it is conjectured that the movements are under the direction of Gen McDowell and are due to representations made to Washington authorities by Colonel Bee, vice consul of the Chinese regarding the supposed danger in which the Chinese stand It is understood that the present precautions will be maintained until such time as some settlement of the existing agitation is arrived at and at least until the question of the constitutionality of the law forbidding corporations to employ Chinese has been decided by the U S courts and the question of the condemnation of Chinatown settled The second regiment are disposed to view the removal of their arms with indignation and many members assert that it is an insult to the regiment, whose loyalty to the state and to the cause of law and order is unquestioned The reason assigned by the officers for the act is that the arms of the regiment being scattered around at a number of company armories are liable to seizure in the event of an unexpected movement by the disorderly classes and that their removal to the old city hall is merely precautionary and not intended as any reflection upon the character of the regiment

The workingmen are considerably excited over these movements, and many of them assert that the authorities are trying to force a quarrel on them Others say that the movement is designed to bluff the board of health in the matter of the condemnation of Chinatown while still others hold that the whole thing is due to unfounded fears of the authorities

SAN FRANCISCO, March 8 —Placards are being posted in prominent places about the city warning the employers of Chinese to desist from the practice and vaguely hinting at terrible consequences in the event of refusal Pointed reference is also made to the condition of the unemployed They are signed, Council of Thirteen "

Co J 1st regular cavalry and part of Co G of the 8th infantry arrived this morning from Camp Halleck Nevada, and proceeded to the Presidio

The Chinese Test Case.

In the Parrott case this morning Davis Louderback spoke on behalf of the people His argument in effect was that the provisions of the fourteenth amendment and the treaties refer only to natural persons, not to corporations He quoted from the old and new state constitutions to show the rights reserved by the state in its dealings with corporations, and from a number of decisions in support of the proposition that the action of the state under its reserved powers does not trench upon the provisions of the United States constitution in regard to the impairment of the obligations of contracts He enlarged upon the absolute control possessed by the state over corporations holding that the latter has only such rights, attributes and capacities as are granted to it and not those common to natural persons He argued that not only Chinese but also citizens have not inherent right to pursue any lawful business He referred to the restrictions imposed upon women and children in the matter of conducting various branches of business and following certain avocations In depriving a Chinaman of the right to labor for a corporation his right to reside travel and live in the country was not touched

Robert Ashe followed for the people This argument was to the same general tenor as the preceding, developing no new points further than in enlarging upon the point that in the present case the Chinese had made no complaint, and the court could not take cognizance of this complaint made in their behalf by the petitioner Recess

In the circuit court this afternoon Mr Ashe concluded his argument, and a discussion ensued between the counsel and the court on the subject of state control of corporations

Crittenden Thornton followed for the people He spoke briefly confining his argument mainly to consideration of the terms of the national banking act He drew the conclusion that the state had a right to demand that the directors officers and all agents of a corporation must be citizens of the state and that the same rule would apply to all employes of companies

Judge Hoffman for the court raised a question as to whether a laborer could be considered an agent of a company and called attention to the fact that such construction would prevent a corporation for hospital purposes from employing Chinese attendants for Chinese patients and would also prevent the employment of Chinese interpreters by corporations having to transact business with Chinese and wanted to know where counsel would draw a line to stop the state from exercising arbitrary and unreasonable control

Counsel in reply referred to the celebrated Granger cases wherein it was held that [illegible] interference with affairs of a corporation as would practically amount to confiscation would be going beyond the spirit of right of state control

District Attorney Smoot closed for the people He quoted the preamble to the constitution of the United States relative to securing certain blessings for ourselves and our posterity and claimed that it was an argument that the negotiation of a treaty with China had no intention of nullifying the preamble by cursing the country with the presence of an alien race He also argued that in making the treaty the United States and China were bound to take notice of the law forbidding the employment of Chinese [illegible] although it was not then in existence it was within the province of the state [illegible] law also that the radical difference between the white and Mongolian races was an argument that the right of the state to self protection was [illegible] taken away

To-morrow forenoon Mr Berry will close for the petitioners

Intelligence and Business Interests to the Front—Manifesto of Citizens of San Francisco

SAN FRANCISCO March 8 The following manifesto will appear in the Call to-morrow morning

[illegible] and expect [illegible] [illegible] lawful [illegible] in [illegible] [illegible] is the [illegible] First [illegible] Second [illegible] Third [illegible] Fourth—The [illegible] industrial [illegible]

All that we [illegible] and expect [illegible] will in the [illegible] an organization of [illegible] [illegible] should [illegible] that the [illegible] shall [illegible] drawn between those who are in favor of law and order right of property safety [illegible] [illegible] and desire [illegible]

There is no middle ground [illegible] can stand Neutrality [illegible] used by extreme [illegible] The agitation which was begun and carried on [illegible] Chinese immigration has [illegible] revival of impudent blasphemies threatenings against life and property and vilification of private character until it has become the scandal of the time and brought dishonor upon American civilization So long as the agitation was confined to its original purpose it proceeded without objection for the whole people of California recognized the evils of Chinese immigration and united to oppose it by all lawful means but now when it is made a pretext for organization of large bodies of armed men whose declared purposes are riot and possible massacre to be aided by general conflagration and the actors are to be rewarded by liberty of unlimited pillage. The citizens of this commonwealth have determined to interpose their power and declare that this contemplated tragedy shall not be enacted here and that public threats of accomplishment of such wicked and inhuman designs cannot and will not be longer tolerated Drills in secret places nightly tramp in the streets of irregular armed forces accompanied by arrogant threats of violence by their leaders is an intolerable menace to the peace and well being of society If no harm is intended there will be no more threats and display of force will be henceforth confined to public parades in open day The city wants peace and it is our purpose to give it that tranquility which will assure renewed prosperity and again place it in the highway of its grand destiny We appeal to the reason of men drawn into the vortex of treason to the social order prepared for them by vicious irresponsible and selfish leaders We ask them to reflect that this is a government of law by the people that there are legal and peaceful remedies for public and private wrongs that neither the Chinese question nor any other question, can be settled here and now by a resort to unlawful force that the courts of this state and of the United States are arbiters of all these questions and that their decrees will be enforced by the irresistible power of governmental authority that threats of destruction and desolation by dynamite and fire of hangings and murder furnish no remedy for grievances nor relief to the destitute but rather serve to paralyze all our industries and business check enterprise and produce that stagnation which ultimately leaves all laborers out of employment For vicious and reckless men few in number but devilish in their designs who have organized for evil and in their secret halls are planning mischief to people who have too generously tolerated their presence in this city we have no word either of counsel or warning but let no man be deceived Whoever would begin riot violence or conflagration here let him first count the cost The honest unemployed and deserving poor have the sympathy of all just men and the appeals of those in want have always been met with a generous response throughout California and so will it be now Let all turmoil cease and all true men unite for the restoration of confidence that enterprise may again be quickened our industries put in motion and business revived so that all who labor may find remunerative employment, and want become a thing unknown Instead of meditating upon the destruction of the accumulations of the people it were better to unite in the development of the great resources of this fertile state ample in area for us all, and millions more Money spent for deadly weapons, whose disturbing clank is heard upon our pavements at night were better spent for bread and clothing for children of want There is a peaceful solution to every question a peaceful remedy for every evil Let reason prevail and the way to permanent tranquility and general prosperity is easily found Opportunity will be afforded to all good citizens to join this organization

SOMETHING FOR THE PEOPLE OF WASHINGTON TERRITORY

An Interesting Document for their Perusal—How Ferry and his Clique are Working up His Reappointment

We now present a document which will be of considerable interest to the people of Washington territory and which probably will attract the attention of the [illegible] elsewhere The writer is the territorial treasurer who owes his office to Gov Ferry [illegible] his anxiety for the reappointment of that functionary Hence too his zeal as chairman of the rump committee that attempted to give away to Ferry the whole republican party of Washington territory The document shows further what the federal and territorial officials over in Washington are doing in the way of reforming the civil service by keeping out of political and office hunting intrigues Ferry claims that there is an overwhelming demand for his reappointment springing up as a spontaneous outburst of public appreciation of himself—he and his official clique disdaining to take any measures in that behalf How does all this tally with Tarbell's letter signed wholly by officials and with the postscript thereto? The letter itself bears date as early as Dec 12 and the postscript is manifestly not much later at which time Ferry had already written to Mr Brents sending him the original petition The letter is a literal copy of the original which was sent to Brents and we publish it just as written with all its peculiarities of orthography punctuation syntax and capitalization Were this matter brought directly to the notice of the president of the United States it is very probable that the officials concerned in it would receive proper admonition as to the propriety of future abstention from such intrigues and the admonition might come in a way to render it memorable, as well as effective The people of Washington Territory will see from this document that they have an official clique which is employing all possible resources of craft and impudence to perpetuate its own tenure Doubtless they will be interested in the revelation of this fact which the document affords It is proper to say that Mr Brents did not furnish the copy of this document and if those who prepared it wonder how it has obtained publicity let them remember that stones have been known to hear and trees to speak The fulsome laudation of Ferry in this document is well worthy of one who owes office to him and has not spirit enough to be a man on his own account The idea that Ferry has paid the debt of the territory is as impudent as any other part of the document, Concerning the other petition referred to said to have been signed by the members of the legislature It is enough to say that the signers are the same who had previously signed a paper arraigning Gov Ferry for gross misconduct in abusing the pardoning power for political considerations, besides other palpable improprieties This last petition was signed during the recent session of the legislature when Gov Ferry was in a position to exact from members what perhaps they would have hesitated about granting at another time It is proper that these things be published in order to let the people of the territory into a knowledge of the manner in which their affairs are carried on by an official clique whose chief study is to keep themselves in office, and who adroitly work up matters of this kind in their own behalf and then pretend that the call to keep them in official place comes from the people and ought to have weight both at home and with the appointing power at Washington Those who have suffered themselves to be deluded with these ideas may find disenchantment in the foregoing statements and in the Tarbell letter which we now present

Francis Tarbell

The rules adopted by the President We believe is to appoint for the third term when there is strong local recommendation Which in this case you may rest assured will be over whelming

When Gov E P Ferry's present term expires he will have been Governor eight years, and, if he is reappointed in all human probability he will be the last Territorial Governor Again If he is not reappointed there is not one chance in a thousand that the appointee will be a citizen of the Territory We need not incite the character of his administration as you know it has been without a blemish the smell of fire is not on his garments, no corrupt bargain or job has stained his administration and the people understand and appreciate this. Without any increase in the rate of taxation and Yet with a heavy increase of expenditures he has so managed the financial affairs of the Territory, that we have paid a large debt stopped a heavy interest account and to day we have money in the Treasury Of such a record any man may well be proud As further evidence of his popularity we herewith enclose a certified copy of a petition signed by every Member of the Council and all but two of the House who refused on political grounds being very bitter partisans

The Original will be forwarded to you with petitions and other papers in good time What we want now is for you to at least Get a promise from the President that he Will Not give the appointment to any one Until he can have an expression from Our people I have the honor to remain

TUESDAY MORNING, MARCH [illegible] 1880

HOW IT STARTED

We are told by a person who was formerly a resident of San Francisco and who has watched from its beginning the development of the sand lot agitation which is doing more than all other causes combined to stay the progress and arrest the prosperity of California, that the movement may be traced back to a debating club which some years ago held weekly meetings in San Francisco. At these meetings various subjects were discussed, religious, social and governmental affairs coming in for a full share. Kearney and other original leaders of the party were members. There Kearney first made himself noticeable in several discussions on the authenticity of the scriptures, in which discussions he took the negative side. In his coarse and vehement style he hurled epithets at the Bible, at Christianity and at all believers in religion. Then followed discussion on municipal affairs and on the Chinese. The latter attracted most attention till, ere long, like Aaron's rod, it become the serpent which swallowed up all the rest. It was not a great while till the meetings were held every night and were crowded with visitors. Then Kearney, Wellock and others conceived the idea of holding meetings on the sand lots upon Sunday afternoons. Something like this had indeed, become necessary, since the crowd had grown so large that no building would hold it. Though they adopted as their motto the cry, "The Chinese must go," they by no means confined themselves to that question, but asserted that they would break up every corporation, destroy every prosperous association, and, in a word, pull everything down to a common level. The sight of prosperity in any form was enough to kindle their envy and wrath. They assaulted the stock boards and the bonanza firm, but their war in that direction came to a sudden and mysterious end. Next they denounced the railroads in unmeasured terms, but after a visit paid by Kearney to Sacramento, where it was known that he interviewed at least one of the railroad magnates, the assault ceased. They declared further that they would shut up all the savings banks, which were only a device of the rich for handling the money of the poor and living in luxury upon it, and they did succeed in causing a run upon several, which resulted in their suspension. But their strong attack on the Hibernian savings bank proved an utter failure. The depositors' committee were on hand when called for, and the [illegible] were baffled. Next they threatened to carry fire and sword through the state, and organized and armed several companies of men. They succeeded in alarming capital, in causing a suspension of enterprise, in driving many capitalists from the state, and in causing others to prefer investment in bonds at four per cent. rather than take ten per cent, with the contingent element of insecurity which the sand lot had brought about. But in all these things Kearney, Wellock and their associates were not solely to blame. Political intriguers were at work, and the press,—for San Francisco is cursed with cheap and unprincipled journals,—trying to find gain through the agitation, reported all the proceedings and encouraged the growing turbulence. Thus the leaders of the sand lot obtained the publicity they desired, and thus "the workingmen's party," as it is now falsely called, grew up. From its inception it has been a sort of Adullam's cave, the refuge of the discontented, the turbulent and the non-working classes. Whoever had an axe to grind, a scheme to carry, took it to Kearney. Capitalists and politicians through him sought to gain points for their own advantage, and were ready to pay for the supposed service, unmindful of the fact that this was just what the leaders had in view in keeping up the uproar, and that the delusion that a permanent peace could be purchased with it was only a repetition on a small scale of the efforts of the Roman empire to arrest the depredations of the Goths and Vandals by heavy payments of money. It is an indisputable fact that the course of the press and of the business classes of San Francisco in relation to this agitation has had much to do with fostering it and with keeping it alive. They helped to raise the [illegible] storm which, but for them would have died away; and now as they see it rising to a hurricane and find themselves powerless to arrest its course or to avert the catastrophe it threatens, they tremble and quail before it. They have seen a new constitution hung like a millstone around the neck of the state, they see widespread distrust and financial demoralization, and they hear rumors of coming riot and bloodshed. Too late they realize their insane folly in aiding and abetting the incendiaries and demagogues of the sand lot. Better would it have been to follow old Ben. Franklin's advice, "Don't unchain the tiger."

A "SLOW RACE"

It is apparent to every observer that Mr Tilden and General Grant, the two candidates of greatest prominence in their respective parties, are both the center of discord, and that both, notwithstanding vigorous protest, are being pushed on their parties by trained and powerful bodies of political managers, whose study it is to overcome or set aside the popular will, while they substitute for it their own personal interests and wishes. In another respect, also, the position of General Grant and that of Mr Tilden are similar. Each is backed by a body of adherents who do not care for the success of their party if they cannot win. As they look at it, the result of the election is nothing unless it brings them what they want. Hence if the republican convention should pronounce for some other person than General Grant, his powerful corps of personal adherents, led by Conkling and Cameron would have no interest in the election, and if the anti-Tilden men succeed in giving the democratic nomination to somebody else Tilden and his adherents, who form the most powerful working force in the democratic party are likely to manifest their resentment in a more or less open manner, and either let the contest take care of itself or give the candidate treacherous support and fifth rib stabs.

The parallel may be pushed further. Large part of the German voters of the country are republicans, though many of them are extremely independent and little addicted to close adhesion to party. One of the well known facts of the present political situation is the objection of large numbers of German republicans to Gen Grant. This opposition probably has its root chiefly in dislike of the political methods that prevailed during Grant's administration. Our German citizens appear not to have become habituated as others are to the spoils system in politics and in the public service. For this, among other reasons, they do not remember Gen Grant's presidency with favor, and it is undeniable that a large part of the German republican sentiment of the country is protesting against his nomination for another term. There are those who believe that he could not possibly carry Ohio, a state whose German vote is large, and it is quite as likely that there would be as great a defection in the German vote of New York. Now Mr Tilden is in a very similar position as regards the Irish voters whose numbers in New York entitle them to a large share of the spoils of the democratic party. The Chicago Times says: "Tilden represents the German element and Kelly the Irish element in the New York party. Tilden has insisted that the German [illegible] percentage of [illegible] from Tammany [illegible] its retainers have run the machine for the benefit of the Irish. This phase of the agreement is well understood by the Germans throughout the country, as was shown by the large German vote which Tilden received in 1876. If then Tilden shall be shut out from the democratic nomination at the dictation of Tammany the Germans will resent the act as an affront and an injustice, and there is reason to believe that a serious defection among the German democratic voters in New York would be as fatal to the party as John Kelly's bolt was last fall. Besides the Germans in other states would sympathize with their New York friends and this vote constitutes the balance of political power in many important communities."

This is an extremely complicated situation, so much so that it may well be a matter of doubt whether Gen Grant or Mr Tilden if they were pitted against each other would come out ahead. It is this state of facts which gives point to the remark of the Illinois congressman about a "slow race" should Grant and Tilden be the opposing candidates.

THE FIRST CONTEST

Some years ago when THE OREGONIAN began to point out the tendencies of our present school system, and to state objections to its methods, objects and results, it could awaken no interest in the subject. People would not think of it because it was a new and altogether unheard of thing that the public could attempt too much in the cause of free education, or that our school system could be anything but perfect. Not half a dozen persons could be found in the city who were disposed to agree with this journal that too much might be attempted by our system of education, or that there was any ground whatever for criticising it. Hence no contest on the subject was possible. People all seemed to have one way of thinking. But at last an interest has been awakened, and as the subject has been brought before the public attention and people have thought upon it they have begun to question the perfection of the system as it exists, and inquire whether after all, these modern notions about public education and the highly praised utilities of an extended high school system are well founded. It is not too much to say that the vote which Mr Northrup received yesterday represents the growing protest against the system as it stands and is moreover a declaration in favor of retrenching it. Such a vote would have been impossible when THE OREGONIAN first began to discuss the subject. Hence this journal is by no means discouraged. It often takes a long time to get a change of public opinion on an important subject. But in the formation of an opinion in favor of school reform there has been encouraging and even remarkable progress here. People will often tolerate the abuses and errors of a system for a long period before they arrive at a determination to reform them. But truth and common sense always have time on their side, while every description of sham and flummery and cheat and delusion tends to its inevitable hour.

This contest for sound general and common school education, and against an extravagant system of class education, is not ended. It will be persisted in till abuses and excesses and superfluities are cut off, and a rational system of public education is again established. This journal will not cease to wage war on a system of expensive quackery which, instead of preparing our youth for independent effort in life, makes of large numbers nothing but petty clerks, or attendants about offices and stores, who think they are too well educated to undertake any hard labor or mechanical industry. All the business offices in San Francisco are thronged with young men out of the high schools who are glad to get twenty or thirty dollars a month in 'light and genteel employment,' but who wouldn't think of going to work at any price. Unless we bring our schools within proper limits we shall gradually develop the same results here. The tendency to idleness and dependence is certainly considerable enough without encouraging it further through a mistaken system of public education, and paying heavily for it into the bargain.

It is a great mistake on the part of any system to cling to its abuses and excesses too long, in the face of a growing demand for their abatement. When judgment comes under such conditions it is apt to come with too much severity. The upholders of the abuses of a system are never wise to adhere to them till the demand for the required reform comes in the shape of an attack on the system itself. For at last in such cases there is the heroic method, and when it is invoked it is neither gentle in the use of its weapons nor discriminating in the objects for which it uses them. So far this discussion has produced good results if it fixes public attention upon the errors and excesses of a system which heretofore has been held above criticism, and admonishes the specialists who devote themselves to the system and who are constantly endeavoring to extend it that they would do well to call a halt.

One incident developed in the discussion of the school question deserves to be noted more than it has been. An association of persons numbering we know not how many met last Friday evening and passed a series of resolutions denouncing Mr I. J. Northrup in most bitter and indecent terms. The principal accusation was—what? That Mr Northrup is actually guilty of the heinous crime of belonging to and being an active worker in an organization which has for its object the propagation of Christianity among Chinese. And two new paper rags had the shamelessness to print with emphatic approval the resolutions carrying this denunciation. And not a few people who hold themselves out as models of religious zeal and deportment cooperated actively and hand in hand with those in whose estimation it is an offense and even a crime to declare Jesus Christ to men. Doubtless in the judgment of their associates it is now settled by the result of the school election that the accusation against a man that he is guilty of helping to christianize Chinese is a sufficient brand of infamy to exclude him not only from official place but from the respect and confidence of his fellow men. The organs of the [illegible] can tell us whether this is not the chief result of the [illegible] election.

At the office of the Malheur [illegible] mining company in this city [illegible] from their mine in the shape of silver bullion are now regularly received. Those who look upon these bars of solid silver will see evidences of mineral wealth which will surprise them. This company have never paraded the prospects of their mine in an ostentatious way, but now the mine is turning out a product which shows for itself. It is only the beginning of a great mineral development in Eastern Oregon.

Recent congresses have had a passion for investigation, but the present surpasses them all by proposing to investigate the causes of the recent [illegible]. There is no doubt that a good many [illegible] facts about the causes of [illegible] are in existence, but it [illegible] that a congressional committee has the power [illegible] them. An intelligent [illegible] would be interesting [illegible].

[illegible] the result [illegible] indicates the retention [illegible] of the professor [illegible] who has a [illegible] and [illegible] as much sense as a crack [illegible] and [illegible] her language of [illegible]. [illegible] this also to be taken as one of the modern improvements of the school system.

Though there was a larger vote yesterday in the school election than usual still there were very many taxpayers who did not appear at the polls. Many of the absentees were prominent citizens who because they saw things set up in advance by those who run elections for the profit there is in the result stay away in disgust. We never thought much of that method as a remedy.

MOVEMENTS OF THE "SHUBRICK."—The lighthouse tender Shubrick, which was ordered to Tillamook rock, has been barbound in Baker's bay for several days. The moorings which the Mary Taylor the regularly employed tender for the new lighthouse, used for anchorage were displaced a few weeks ago, and on that account she has been unable to land supplies. The Shubrick which has the necessary hoisting apparatus, will replace the moorings, which will be made doubly fast by additional weights. She will then return re-arrange the buoys in the river, and re-drive the beacons at the hog back, which were carried away by the high water and ice. After this work is accomplished she will go to Shoalwater bay to look after the [illegible], and incidentally will fit the lighthouse there with mineral lamps.

DESTROYED BY FIRE.—The residence of Mr. John Murray, on his farm, one and a half miles from Butteville, Marion county, Oregon, was destroyed by fire last Friday morning. The most of the household furniture was saved. His wagon, tools and implements, 800 boxes apples, flour, meat, and other household supplies, sufficient for several months' consumption, a Plummer fruit dryer, &c, were all burned up. No cause can be assigned for the origin of the fire. Probable loss about $1500. No insurance. The loss falls with peculiar severity on a young industrious young man and his family, as he has not quite got his farm paid for, and was making every effort to get out of debt; this loss will necessarily put him back to the starting point again.

A STEAMBOATMAN DROWNED.—Sunday afternoon as the steamer Latona was coming down the river near La Center, a passenger discovered Albert Bonser, the fireman, a few yards behind the boat, swimming toward the shore. A boat was lowered but no one could reach the unfortunate man he sank. It is not known how he fell from the steamer, as he was not missed until seen in the water. His body was recovered on a half a mile below the scene of the accident. He was a son of James Bonser, of this coast, was 23 years old and [illegible]. He will be buried to-day at [illegible] City.

PORTLAND STREET IMPROVEMENTS.—Residents of East Portland have been annoying the board of trustees with [illegible] against street improvements, [illegible] reported that the members of that body have resolved to arm themselves with shotguns when they hold session [illegible], as there is a deadlock between the trustees and the property owners, [illegible] that a mass meeting will be held at an early date to get a public expression on the subject of street improvements. It is said that the improvements necessary this year will cost nearly $2,000.

[illegible] THAT HOUSE.—Commer[illegible] a good joke at the expense of [illegible]. It appears that [illegible] the joke is to be called [illegible] in this city, and by mistake [illegible] the picture of his bet-ofhed, [illegible] saying that "he [illegible] establishment." The mer[illegible] it carefully, remarked that [illegible] establishment, and returned it to [illegible] man with a hope that he [illegible] be admitted into partnership.

[illegible] NEWS.—In obedience to instructions received from the department, all [illegible] of the fourth, fifth and sixth [illegible] be replaced with mineral oil [illegible] the place of lard oil lamps. [illegible] lighthouse in this district [illegible] fourth order. The new lighthouse [illegible] rock will have, instead of a [illegible] light, a scintillating light flashing [illegible] seconds. The fog bell at New [illegible] will be transferred, in a short time [illegible] Point.

[illegible] CLEANED.—Would it not be [illegible] county court to take some action [illegible] the block on which the court [illegible] placed in a little better condition. [illegible] the yard on the north side [illegible] house is encumbered with rub[illegible] detracts very much from the appearance of the premises. It would cost only [illegible] to have the whole yard cleaned [illegible] moving space, this should [illegible].

[illegible]—The Twenty-first regimental [illegible] over last evening on the steamer [illegible] the officers and troops who have [illegible] to proceed to San Francisco on [illegible]. After the steamer landed the [illegible] ashore and serenaded Gen. Dandy [illegible] citizens. At a late hour last [illegible] the Latona returned to Vancouver [illegible] band.

The articles were [illegible] yesterday by Detective Hudson in a [illegible] pawn shop, where they had been [illegible] for $5 50. The jewelry was restored [illegible], who rewarded Mr. Hudson [illegible].

[illegible] TRUNKS.—Last evening some parties [illegible] trunk from one of the rooms in the [illegible] Hotel. They carried the trunk [illegible] distance away, and breaking it open [illegible] a pair of trowsers, a coat, and [illegible] valued at $28. The [illegible] made good their escape. No [illegible] perpetrators.

The upper works, [illegible] were badly wrecked by the recent [illegible] are being torn away, so that the boiler [illegible] machinery can be removed and over[illegible].

AMUSEMENTS.

The splendid play of Pygmalion and Galatea was produced at New Market last evening, before a fair audience, and was received with marks of great favor. The play requires but few people to carry it out, and Mr. Maguire is able with the troupe now at his theater to put it on in an excellent manner, as was done on this occasion. Mr. Geo. D. Chaplin assumed the part of Pygmalion and did it ample justice, as did Miss Adams that of Galatea, the maiden who was changed from a statue of stone to a living being, with all the feelings, passions and loves of humanity, but with the artless innocence of one who knows naught of the ways of the world. But by the coldness of the world and the knowledge that all whom she loved did not love her in return, she was changed again into the cold and unfeeling marble. Miss Wade assumed the character of Cynisca, wife of Pygmalion, in a usual felicitous way, while Mr. Lindsay and Miss Douglass in the characters of Leucippe and Chrysos did excellently well. Mr. Simms played the comic part of Chrysos, the ignorant patron of art, in good taste, and received merited applause. At the close of the second act a most beautiful piece of stage scenery was presented. The curtain went up and a most beautiful fountain arose, the water ascending to the flies of the stage and assuming all the natural colors, from a dazzling white to a blood red, blue, green and golden. Altogether this was the finest stage effects we have ever seen, and is well worth the price of admission. This fountain of changing colors played for two or three minutes, and was watched with great interest by the audience, who gave long and loud applause at each mutation. All admirers of an interesting play and superb scenery should see "Pygmalion and Galatea."

THE SCHOOL ELECTION.

JOHN WILSON CHOSEN DIRECTOR AND D. W. WILLIAMS CLERK—REMARKABLY HEAVY VOTE POLLED.

The school election yesterday was the most exciting ever held in this city. From the time the polls were open until they closed there was a constant stream of voters reaching from the edge of the sidewalk to the door of the voting place, No. 149 Third street. Many carriages were called into requisition, and brought numbers of ladies and gentlemen to the polls. The vote was more than six times as heavy as last year and the largest ever cast in the city at a school election.

The following is the result: For director, John Wilson, 457; E. J. Northrup, 284; scattering, 5; Wilson's majority, 173.

For clerk—D. W. Williams, 301; Wm. A. Daly, 225; R. B. Curry, 143; E. F. Heroy, 74; Williams' plurality, 76.

MILITARY ASSISTANCE ASKED FOR.

From a gentleman who came up from Portland on the express last evening, we learn that the workingmen of San Francisco had taken up arms en masse against the Chinese. Howard's command at Vancouver were telegraphed to hold themselves in readiness to leave for San Francisco at 6 o'clock this (Sunday) morning. Jacksonville school district pays the following salaries: Principal, $1200; preceptor of the second department $700; of the third, $540; of the fourth, $360. Or the neat sum of $2800 per annum.

A scamp named Gordon lately employed by Mr. Anderson, one of the commissioners of Jackson county, sloped last week taking with him a silver watch, a Winchester rifle and other articles of value.

Following is the result of the city election of Jacksonville, held last week: Trustees, P. G. Reames, Charles Nickell, John Orth. Recorder, J. Nunan. Treasurer, Henry Pape. Marshal, D. W. Crosby.

The new grist mill established at Elkton is in successful operation and is a great blessing to the settlers of that locality. The company recently furnished a considerable quantity of flour to the Gardiner market.

A report from Summer lake says that stock is doing as well as could be expected, but that fears of a considerable loss are entertained, unless a change in the weather occurs soon. The stock men of that section expect to commence riding early to avoid any calamity from inattention.

During the last school year the Jacksonville district received from all sources, $3008 37; total expenditures $2780 55; balance on hand, $1125 72. The outgoing director, D. Linn, not desiring a re-election, J. R. Neil was chosen in his stead. J. H. Huffer was re elected clerk by acclamation.

A rich strike has been made in Blackwell district, on that which is known as Cree gulch, by Barkdell & Kline. The quartz will go $200 to the ton. The vein was discovered by Cal. Barkdell while groundsluicing, and is several inches in width. Some of the ore was pounded up in a hand-mortar and yielded handsomely.

From Wagner creek: Very little plowing has been done and less grain has been put in than ever before at this time of the year. Just now we have a foot of snow and the prospect is that a great deal of stock will suffer yet before spring, as most of the hay in this settlement has been fed out. Outside cattle appear to get along better than those that have been fed.

Mr. Rodgers, of Coos river, was assaulted by a young bull a few days ago and narrowly escaped being gored to death. Fortunately the bull had a ring in its nose and wires from this ring to its horns, so that Rodgers was enabled, by holding to the wires, to prevent young "Taurus" from impaling him on its horns. At one time the bull had him in a position that he could reach him with the point of its horns, and dealt him a terrible blow, but fortunately a memorandum book in Rodgers' pocket received the blow and probably saved him from receiving a dangerous wound. The bull succeed in wallowing him in the mud, but finally, in the scuffle, they came to an open ditch, by means of which he was enabled to escape.

Lake View Herald: Cattle men of Goose lake, Crooked creek, Chewaucan, Summer lake and Silver lake are notified that the 12th inst. has been specified as a time at which they are requested to congregate at Johnson creek, in Summer lake valley, and proceed from there to the Desert, to look after their pastoral interests. From various reports from those who assume to be informed, we are left to conclude that stock are doing reasonably well in that section of the country, and but little loss has been reported, the entire winter. Nothing definite as to the actual condition of the stock can be learned, however, until the cattle men have made a thorough examination of their respective bands and the present condition of the range.

The Olympia Transcript learns the following relative to the Gray's Harbor gold mines, from G. D. Moore, who is engaged in working the diggings: They are situated on the south side, just inside the harbor, and consist of a large bank or deposit of black sand, in which the gold is found. It extends into the bay, but shows sufficient on the beach for several years' mining. A tower has been built, and in it a large tank for holding water, which water is employed to wash the sand in a line of sluice boxes. The water is raised from a ten-foot well by means of a large Nevada windmill. The gold is saved by quicksilver, electro-plated plates and blankets, and is the finest kind of flour gold, worth $18 per ounce. Mr. Moore has had considerable trouble and expense in getting appliances to get water and save the gold, but he thinks he is now prepared for steady work. With one string of sluice boxes he will take out $250 per month. He intends adding a tank and pump to the works soon, which will greatly facilitate the work, by furnishing more water. This bank is probably one of the largest on the coast.

AUGUST FLOWER.

The immense sale and great popularity of Green's August flower in all towns and villages in the civilized world has caused many imitators to adopt similar names, expecting to reap a harvest for themselves at the expense of the afflicted. This medicine was introduced in 1868 and for the cure of Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint, with their effects, such as Sour Stomach, Costiveness, Sick Stomach, Sick Headache, Indigestion, Palpitation of the Heart, vertigo, etc., etc. it never has failed to our knowledge. Three doses will relieve any case of Dyspepsia. Two million bottles sold last year. Price 75 cents. Samples 10 cents.

CUTTING AFFRAY.

Jerry Weston, an Inmate of the Penitentiary, Receives Two Dangerous Cuts at the Hands of a Cellmate.

[illegible]

[illegible], March 8.

A horrible cutting affray occurred at the penitentiary on Sunday morning, in which a convict named Jerry Weston, from Clatsop county received severe cuts and injuries at the hands of his cell mate, John McComb, sentenced from Marion county. They were confined in the same cell and had been accustomed to shaving themselves. Yesterday, their razor having been passed in to them, and while Weston was standing with his back toward McComb, the latter, without a word of warning, suddenly reached around and drew the razor across Weston's throat, cutting a frightful gash, barely missing the jugular vein. He then inflicted another wound a few inches lower, when Weston grappled with him and raised the cry of murder. Warden Osborn rushed into the cell and after a severe struggle McComb was brought under subjection and cast into the dungeon. No cause can be assigned for the attack save insanity, the convict McComb having acted queerly for several days past. Weston's wounds are considered extremely dangerous.

BIG CATTLE DRIVE.

Following is a list of stock men of eastern Oregon from whom Messrs. Lang & Ryan have purchased cattle to drive east, with the number secured from each person:

W Ainsworthy	1200	John Long	100
P J Gillen	500	Smith & Oliver	400
R E Campbell	400	A J Mosier	400
C A Bonnett	200	H C Trowbridge	800
D N White	200

Total in Oregon	18 800
Bought of Hardiman Bros, Silver City, Idaho	3,000
Bought of Jack Sands, Silver City	1 500
Contracted for at Fort Hall, to join these	2,000
Grand total	22,800

To drive these to the Yellowstone country, where they will winter, will require 800 head of horses and the services of 120 men. Most of these "cow boys" are Kansas men, who have been in the employ of this concern for the past six years. Forty wagons accompany the drive, and about 150 stand of loaded rifles will always be on hand, good for about 3000 shots at any band of hostile Indians that may attack them. The drive will be cut up into three squads or bands of cattle, the first lot having two days start of the third. This brings them within easy range of the rear from the front. In April they will begin to gather up for the start, and by the 25th of that month the greatest body of cattle ever banded together will be slowly marching eastward. Up to the 20th of June the drive will be about nine miles per day, but as the heat of summer comes along they will decrease it to about five. Therefore a steer travels no more on a drive of this kind than he would upon the range, and is sure to be in good order when he reaches the Yellowstone, as there is abundance of bunch grass as soon as the Grande Ronde river is passed.

ENDORSING THE "OREGONIAN"

The following resolutions were passed at the annual meeting of school district, No. 2, Multnomah county:

We the legal voters of this district fully recognizing the existence of gross errors in our school system, and that the right of the people to control their school affairs, have about passed into the hands of rings to the great detriment of the people;

Be it Resolved, That we indorse the action of THE OREGONIAN in calling the attention of the people to this important matter:

And Further, That a copy of these resolutions be forwarded to THE OREGONIAN for publication.

Funny Sayings.

The public is ofttimes led to read notices in the many newspapers of the marvellous cure some kind of patent medicine has effected, and some high sounding name is attached to a testimonial as a further guarantee. But judging from the many testimonials from well known persons here in our state to the effect that the OREGON KIDNEY TEA has no superior for the cure of kidney and bladder diseases, we feel easy in recommending this valuable discovery to our readers who may be afflicted with any trouble in these organs.

The local market is a little more active in some lines, but prices fluctuate very little. Wheat receipts have increased and buyers are taking good shipping lots more freely at current quotations which are about $1 85 per cental. Tonnage to day is quoted at 45s from San Francisco to Cork a decline, which may account for the somewhat better tone in the wheat market on this coast, which is reported in some quarters. The markets abroad appear sluggish without change in rates or any unusual demand. The surplus in this state and Washington territory is being quite rapidly reduced, and if several ships now due or about due should put in an appearance holders would have some advantage in the market and prices would be likely to advance slightly at least.

Flour is in fair demand and occasional sales are reported at $5 75 or less per barrel for standard brands.

Oats are not coming forward freely and most receipts are taken for the local trade which is fair at 40 cents per bushel for good feed.

Eggs are in fair request, having advanced to 18 cents.

Other products unchanged.

SUICIDE.

A distinguished scientist once said "No man with a strong healthy stomach ever committed suicide, yet many suffer the torments of the damned with dyspepsia when a single bottle of DR MINTIE'S ENGLISH DANDELION LIVER AND DYSPEPSIA PILLS will give relief and if persisted in cure the worse case of this distressing trouble. This pill cures torpid liver, biliousness, sallow complexion, foul breath, sick headache, heartburn, pain in side and back, removes pimples from the face, regulates the bowels, is sugar-coated and guaranteed purely vegetable. It acts directly on the coating of the stomach and on the liver, is suited to any climate wet or dry weather. Beware of imitations, genuine has cut of [illegible] on outside wrapper. Price 50 cents. Sold by all druggists. Hodge Davis & Co, Portland, wholesale agents.

How to Save Money

Instead of going to a doctor if you have Bright's Disease, Diabetes, pain in back and loins, smarting inflammation, calculi, brick dust deposit or any trouble of the kidneys or bladder, buy a bottle of DR MINTIE'S NEPHRETICUM, the great Buchu Compound. It is the best prescription ever compounded for these troubles. Abrams & Carroll, Wholesale Druggists, say: "We regard Nephreticum as the best Kidney and Bladder Remedy in the market." Woodward, druggist, Portland, Oregon, says "Everybody speaks highly of it." Childs, druggist, Portland, says "Sold lots of it, it always does the work." Many have been cured of obstinate kidney complaints after the doctors gave them up. Sold by all druggists. Price $1 00 a bottle or six bottles for $5. Hodge, Davis & Co, Portland Wholesale Agents.

Sir Astley Cooper's Vital Restorative.

The great English remedy—has made more cures of Nervous Debility, Seminal Weakness, Lost Manhood, nocturnal emissions, lassitude, inability for mental labor, despondency, and such diseases as are induced by youthful follies and excesses than all other medicines combined.

It is not a stimulant nor excitant, is perfectly safe to take, is not a quack nostrum, and produces results that are wonderful.

Price, $3 a bottle. Four times the quantity, $10. Buy a bottle. It will not disappoint you. Hodge, Davis & Co., wholesale agents.

THE GENUINE

DR. C. McLANE'S

CELEBRATED

Hepatitis or Liver Complaint,

DYSPEPSIA AND SICK HEADACHE.

Symptoms of a Diseased Liver.

PAIN in the right side, under the edge of the ribs, increases on pressure, sometimes the pain is in the left side, the patient is rarely able to lie on the left side, sometimes the pain is felt under the shoulder blade, and it frequently extends to the top of the shoulder, and is sometimes mistaken for rheumatism in the arm. The stomach is affected with loss of appetite and sickness, the bowels in general are costive, sometimes alternative with lax, the head is troubled with pain, accompanied with a dull, heavy sensation in the back part. There is generally a considerable loss of memory, accompanied with a painful sensation of having left undone something which ought to have been done. A slight dry cough is sometimes an attendant. The patient complains of weariness and debility, he is easily startled, his feet are cold or burning, and he complains of a prickly sensation of the skin, his spirits are low; and although he is satisfied that exercise would be beneficial to him, yet he can scarcely summon up fortitude enough to try it. In fact, he distrusts every remedy. Several of the above symptoms attend the disease, but cases have occurred where few of them existed, yet examination of the body, after death, has shown the LIVER to have been extensively deranged.

AGUE AND FEVER

DR C MCLANE'S LIVER PILLS, IN CASES OF AGUE AND FEVER, when taken with Quinine, are productive of the most happy results. No better cathartic can be used, preparatory to, or after taking Quinine. We would advise all who are afflicted with this disease to give them a FAIR TRIAL.

For all bilious derangements, and as a simple purgative, they are unequaled.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.

The genuine are never sugar coated.

Every box has a red wax seal on the lid, with the impression DR MCLANE'S LIVER PILLS.

The genuine MCLANE'S LIVER PILLS bear the signatures of C MCLANE and FLEMING BROS on the wrappers.

Insist upon having the genuine DR C MCLANE'S LIVER PILLS, prepared by Fleming Bros of Pittsburgh, Pa, the market being full of imitations of the name McLane, spelled differently but same pronunciation.

He has become an expert in the treatment of disease weakness and derangement of the reproductive organs of both male and female including diseases caused by the

Such as SPERMATORRHEA or SEMINAL WEAKNESS or LOSS OF PERFECT VITALITY. Nearly two thirds of all the Chronic Diseases spring either directly or indirectly from some derangement of the sexual system and yet his subject is neglected by the majority of the Medical Profession.

I know that persons who are unfortunate enough to be afflicted by any form of sexual disease have a delicacy in calling upon the proper physician in time from a sense of modesty and sometimes from ignorance, and permit those diseases to exist until their constitutions become corrupted, their organization broken down and the hope of future happiness blighted until death becomes a welcome messenger to carry them out of their miserable existence.
